 Hi Team,

I wanted to flag that there's a conversation around Ripple buying XRP that is currently trending in relation to the XRP markets report.

Our recommendation, at this point, is to not respond publicly. Though, if the conversation escalates, it might be valuable for an exec like Bre to respond and quell the conversation.

The [REDACTED] team provided a Reddit thread that gives context to the mindset of the speculative audience in response to the report.

Reach out if you have any questions, we'll continue to monitor the conversations.

Best,

Hi team,

Conversation around Ripple buying XRP is trending this week, as per the markets report, and we wanted to flag a trending Reddit post from yesterday given its amount of traffic "No one is talking about the fact that Ripple is now buying back XRP?".

We don't recommend responding, but the thread does provide context to the mindset of the speculative audience in response to the report.

Thank you!
